The Hamilton Group is a national management and executive search firm specializing in the furniture and related industries. We conduct mid-management to senior level executive searches in all functions. Our search professionals are committed to handling each assignment in a timely, confidential manner. We add value to our client companies by bringing them a pool of leading industry talent that would otherwise have remained untapped.

Since 1995, we have successfully served domestic and international furniture manufacturers ranging in size from $5 million to over $2 billion in revenues. We would appreciate the opportunity to discuss how our services can satisfy your recruiting needs. Please review the remaining information herein and contact us with any questions.
